Second-Generation African Pentecostals in the West Pentecostalism and Politics in Africa Sensational Piety Pentecostal Republic Christianity in Britain Since 1914 Sourcebook for Sundays, Seasons, and Weekdays 2015 Caleb Opoku Nyanni Adeshina Afolayan Murtala Ibrahim Ebenezer Obadare David Goodhew Charles Bobertz

the rise of african pentecostal and charismatic churches in the west has become a growing phenomenon and a starring feature in many social religious and political conversations most of these discussions are generally centered on the first generation churches and their missionary attempt to evangelize the west in this book caleb nyanni offers a fresh insight into the african diaspora church from the perspective of the growing second generation members and their contributions to the life of the church he explores the changing nature of the african diaspora pentecostalism by paying close attention to the church of pentecost in the united kingdom which serves as a case study the book explores the frustrations challenges opportunities and culture of the second generation and examines what they bring to pentecostalism in general as the epicenter of christianity has shifted towards africa in recent decades pentecostalism has emerged as a particularly vibrant presence on the continent this collection of essays offers a groundbreaking study of the complex links between politics and african pentecostalism situated at the intersection between the political the postcolonial and global neoliberal capitalism contributors examine the roots of the pentecostal movement s extraordinary growth how pentecostalism intervenes in key social and political issues such as citizenship party politics development challenges and identity and conversely how politics in africa modulate the pentecostal movement pentecostalism and politics in africa offers a wide ranging picture of a central dimension of postcolonial african life opening up new directions for future research grounded in anthropological comparison and the concept of materiality this book offers an in depth ethnographic study of the similarities and differences among various forms of religious practices in a pentecostal church christ embassy and an islamic group nasfat in the nigerian capital of abuja scholarship in this area tends to focus on inter religious contestations and conflicts however this book proposes that another dynamic is unfolding between christians and muslims that is characterised by conviviality interfaith joint action programmes mutual influences and even the exchange of religious forms the comparative approach reveals that notwithstanding the seemingly opposed worldviews and divergences between muslims and christians they all face similar challenges and apply similar techniques for meeting the challenges posed by the precarious nigerian urban environment it is through practices especially those conducted in semi public settings that people from different religious persuasions define encroach on and feel the weight of each other s presence throughout its history nigeria has been plagued by religious divisions tensions have only intensified since the restoration of democracy in 1999 with the divide between christian south and muslim north playing a central role in the country s electoral politics as well as manifesting itself in the religious warfare waged by boko haram through the lens of christian muslim struggles for supremacy ebenezer obadare charts the turbulent course of democracy in the nigerian fourth republic exploring the key role religion has played in ordering society he argues the rise of pentecostalism is a force focused on appropriating state power transforming the dynamics of the country and acting to demobilize civil society further providing a trigger for muslim revivalism covering events of recent decades to the election of buhari pentecostal republic shows that religio political contestations have become integral to nigeria s democratic process and are fundamental to understanding its future this book charts the profound changes in british christianity over the last century it does so through the medium of diverse local case studies based on high quality new research the ethnic diversification of british churches in the last fifty years is a key theme of the volume overall the chapters show how secularization has had different trajectories in different parts of the country alongside this the book charts the surprising desecularisation of parts of britain in recent decades
